MINISTER'S OVERSEAS TRAVEL OUTCOME REPORT

TRAVEL DETAILS

DEPARTURE DATE 15 September 2018 Return Date 22 September 2018

DESTINATIONS (COUNTRY/IES) China and Hong Kong

I travelled to China and Hong Kong from 15 to 22 September 2018 to support the Adelaide Convention Bureau's (ACB) pitch for new business as well as undertake a series of meetings and functions to promote tourism, trade and investment in the region.

I was accompanied at various stages of the mission by:

- Mr Ben Tuffnell, Executive Director, South Australian Tourism Commission
- Mr Nic Mercer, Director of Sales, Adelaide Convention Bureau
- Ms Alice Jim, Senior Business Development Manager – South Australia, Austrade
- Ms Cecilia Schutz, Ministerial Adviser, Office of the Minister for Trade, Tourism and Investment

DISCUSSION

In Guangzhou I participated in a bid to secure the Nu-Skin incentive program in Adelaide in 2020.

I also met with Mr John O'Sullivan, Managing Director of Tourism Australia and Mr Andrew Hogg, Regional General Manager, Tourism Australia, to discuss key tourism opportunities for South Australia in the China market.

As part of the Guangzhou business program I met with the Consul-General and Senior Trade Commissioner. The Consul-General hosted a lunch with invited local top enterprises where I took the opportunity to highlight the key developments in the South Australian health sector including the Adelaide Biomed Health Precinct, retirement living and related infrastructures and discuss potential investments in the health, aged care and medical tourism sectors.

One of the main reasons for visiting Guangzhou was to participate in the official handover from Guangzhou to Adelaide for the World Routes Aviation conference. World Routes is the largest aviation business to business event in the world and brings together tourism organisations, airline executives, route planners and airports. Adelaide has won the right to host this event in September 2019. At the World Routes conference, I met with Senior Executives from UBM, the owners of World Routes.

In Hong Kong I met with the Consul-General and Senior Trade Commissioner to receive a briefing on issues including the Free Trade Agreement negotiations, current trade and investment sentiment and tourism trends. I informed the Consul-General of our Government's willingness to partner where possible and briefed them on our overseas office and future trade and investment strategy.

As part of the Hong Kong program I hosted a dinner with a number of outbound travel operators and airlines including Cathay Pacific and Singapore airlines. This dinner provided an opportunity to promote the benefits of South Australia from a tourism perspective and also seek feedback about how we can improve our offering.

In Hong Kong, I hosted and facilitated an Agribusiness Roundtable with several top trade buyers and investors where we shared the latest developments and capabilities in premium food and wine production in South Australia.

I had the opportunity to meet Lan Kwai Fong Group Hong Kong to promote the tourism landscape, latest visitation statistics, direct flights status and major economic and key industry developments in South Australia for the Group's investment interests in the tourism infrastructure sector.

Young Brothers Aviation owns the Flight Training School in Adelaide at Parafield Airport. I met with them in Hong Kong to learn about their future expansion plans.

A lunch discussion was held with Dragon Kong Group to express appreciation to the Chief Executive Officer in his continuing role as a South Australian Food & Wine Ambassador.

I met with Shangri-La group in Hong Kong to highlight the State's tourism landscape, latest visitation statistics, direct flights, recent and planned tourism infrastructure and hotel developments in Adelaide's CBD.
