MINISTER'S OVERSEAS TRAVEL OUTCOME REPORT

TRAVEL DETAILS

DEPARTURE DATE 4 January 2019 Return Date 9 January 2019

DESTINATIONS (COUNTRY/IES) Shanghai, China

I travelled to Shanghai, China from 4 to 9 January 2019 to participate in a number of key activities aimed at growing South Australia's presence in the Chinese trade, tourism and investment market.

I was accompanied at various stages of the mission by:

- Mr Ben Tuffnell, Executive Director South Australian Tourism Commission
- Mr Nic Mercer, Director of Sales, Adelaide Convention Bureau (ACB)
- Ms Damien Kitto, Chief Executive, Adelaide Convention Bureau
- Ms Xiaoya Wei, China Country Director
- Ms Cecilia Schutz, Ministerial Adviser

DISCUSSION

1. I attended a lunch hosted by ACB and Tourism Australia with 20 key agents, from the meetings, incentive, convention and exhibition (MICE) industry.
2. These agents represent the direct selling companies and are responsible for making recommendations about preferred destinations to host future incentive programs.
3. Selling the benefits of Adelaide as a destination from both a business and leisure perspective is key to influencing their decision to consider Adelaide in the future.
4. I then participated in an intimate panel session with a select number of agents who have experience with Adelaide as a MICE destination. The purpose of this was to better understand the appeal of Adelaide as a destination and to also understand the challenges we face in attracting more business to Adelaide.
5. Whilst in market I also took the opportunity to meet with Mr Andrew Hogg, Regional General Manager, Tourism Australia, and Ms LC Tan, Regional Business Events Manager to discuss key tourism and convention opportunities for South Australia in the China market.
6. I attended an event run by Tourism Australia which involved 100 of the top agents representing direct selling companies. I pitched to them the benefits of Adelaide as a destination and encouraged them to visit and choose Adelaide for future business activities.
7. Ms Xiaoya Wei, the South Australian Government's newly appointed China Country Director had organised a number of meetings plus a VIP lunch with invited guests.
8. I met with Mr Graeme Meehan, Consul-General and Mr Brent Moore, Trade Commissioner along with Mr Alex Hsieh from Thomas Foods International (TFI).

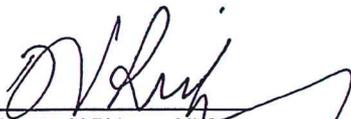

9. I also received an update on the recent outbreak of fruit fly in the Riverland area which has necessitated a ban on all exports of fruit from the Riverland region to China from 1 January 2019.
10. I hosted a lunch with key investors and local business owners with the Consul-General and the China Country Director. This was an excellent opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of the Chinese business environment and how South Australia can capitalise on the growth they are experiencing. The guests were representatives from several different industries including tourism, fresh meat and produce, logistics and wine. As part of this discussion invitations were extended for the group to visit South Australia in the near future to explore potential investment opportunities.
